

USDA Rural Development and Sebasticook Farms Celebrate Over $1 Million to Modernize Mill

From Left to Right: Ronald C. Lambert, Community Programs Director, USDA Rural Development; Tom Davis, Executive Director, Sebasticook Farms; Edith Scott, Vice President, Banknorth (Peoples Heritage Bank); Jack Dyer, Board Member, Sebasticook Farms

At a Check Passing Ceremony at Sebasticook Farms on November 18, officials gathered to celebrate an exceptional saw mill. Sebasticook Farms, in St. Albans has received a Community Facilities Guaranteed Loan from Rural Development totaling $1 million. The funds were used to modernize and increase efficiency at the saw mill that staffs mentally-challenged individuals, helping them be productive members of society. At the ceremony, Executive Director of Sebasticook Farms Tom Davis recognized many staff members for their hard work and dedication to the mill, which boasts an impressive safety record.

Office Building of Sebasticook Farms, in St. Albans

Equipment used at Sebasticook Farms